The Glee Club at Cast.

“The hard working, hard drinking miners of the Glee Club are preparing for their local gala. This is the summer of 1962; music and much else is about to change. 19 year old Colin is the youngest member and just wants to be a rockstar, but after this year, nothing and no-one will ever be the same again.

1962, the year America sent their first man to space, the year Marilyn Monroe sang Happy birthday to JFK, the year the events of The Glee Club changed Colin's life forever. The Beatles rose to fame and brought with them the swinging sixties and Doncaster never looked back.

We want to find out what has changed and what has stayed the same about life for teenagers in Doncaster between now and 1962.

If you're 19 now, we want you to find someone who was 19 in the 1960s and film the two of you answering the questions below. OR you can just film your segment and we'll match up the footage with someone else.

- 1) Tell us about your favourite song?
- 2) Tell us about what you like/liked to wear?
- 3) Tell us what you do/did for fun?
- 4) Tell us what dating is/was like?
- 5) Tell us what you do/did for work?

Once you've done that please send it to hello@outofjoint.co.uk by 6th January 2020 and you'll be entered into the prize draw to win our VIP experience. We'll be creating a super-cut of as many entries as possible so follow our socials to see yourself online.

How to make your video:

- Put your phone or video camera somewhere stationary and don't move it through the whole time filming.
- Have the questions ready to read.
- Your shoulders and head should be in shot on the camera, not the rest of you.
- You should both sit or stand next to each other facing the camera and try and talk towards the camera as much as possible.
- Make sure you read the question out loud so we know which one you're answering.
- You can have fun with it, ask each other what music sounded like etc.
- We recommend filming each question as a separate video file so it is easier to send later on.
- Videos should be longer than one minute.

What to do with it then:

- You don't need to edit anything, just send it to thomas@outofjoint.co.uk by 6th January 2020.
- We're going to make a super cut of as many clips as possible to be displayed in the foyer of Cast in Doncaster
- Each person who submits videos will be entered into a draw to win 4 tickets and a VIP experience at Cast in Doncaster.
